MOTION PICTURE NOTES

In the space of one week, while acting in the big feature film, "The Secret of the Submarine," Juanita Hansen took perilous chances as follows: Remained so long in a water-logsed boat that she fainted; rode in a racing automobile when it leaped a thirty-foot gap in a bridge; dropped in a bridge; dropped in a cellar with hands and feet bound when an exploding bomb wrecked the building; stayed in a burning building until the walls fell in, in order to get a thrilling close-up, and rode in an acroplane across a chasm, landing in a bunch of trees. Such is the life of the daring heroine of the flim these days.

Two in the crowd that attended the birth control meeting in Union Square Sunday afternoon knew that half a dozen film players were taking part in the exercises, making scenes in a feature plotopiay, which is to be based on the subject that was discussed. The Clio Cinema Society is making the picture. It is called "The Upidden." George Q. Meadows wrote the story in called such as some letterheads printed which shade a candidate for the pain of movelty. He has acting the players were taking as a catcher.

Almost Ends Life of Davis Family in Doing It.

A cat in the home of Harry Davis, No. 38 Lorimer Street, Williamsburg, comnitted suicide this morning by jumping onto a gas stove and dislodging a rubber ced tube, at the same time almost asphyxiating the whole Davis family. Mrs. Davis found herself choking when she Davis found herself choking when she awoke, but managed to get to a window and open it. The fresh air revived her and her husband, but their two children, Jacob, ten years old, and Benjamin, two, remained unconscious.

Patrolman Bogart of the Clymer Street Station responded to their calls for help and gave first aid to the children until the arrival of Dr. Fink from the Williamsburg Hospital with a pulmotor. The doctor revived the children.

BOSTON & MAINE RAILROAD

Boston, Mass., May 23, 1916.

To the Noteholde:s of the Boston & Maine Railroad:

You are asked to extend your notes to July 17, 1916, under the following terms:

ANY HOLDER OF NOTES MAY EXTEND THE TIME OF PAYMENT OF THE AMOUNT DUE THEREON TO JULY 17, 1916, WITH INTEREST DISCOUNTED AT THE RATE OF 6% PER ANNUM.

On February 11, 1916, a Joint Reorganization Committee was appointed under authority of votes of the Directors of the Boston and Maine, Boston and Lowell and Fitchburg Railroads, to formulate the details of the plan of consolidation then proposed. Since that time the Committee has been working upon the details of the plan, and has made much progress, but they have been unable to complete their task and desire further time.

The Board of Directors is in favor of giving such time to the Reorganization Committee in the hope that they may be able to complete and present a definite plan.

Your security will not be in any way diminished by this extension, if granted, as no mortgage can be placed upon the property without securing your notes, and it will enable us to continue our efforts toward a sound reorganization under favorable conditions.

Acceptance of this offer must be construed as conditional upon action by the Directors, not later than June 1, 1916, declaring the plan of extension effective.

Noteholders are requested to advise the Old Colony Trust Company, 17 Court Street, Boston, Massachusetts, before 2 p. m., Wednesday, May 31. 1916, of their acceptance of the plan for extension, stating the numbers, including prefixes, denominations and dates of issue of the notes they hold. Noteholders will subsequently be asked to present their notes for extension.

By order Board of Directors,

J. H. HUSTIS.

President.
